Introduction

Yemen is suffering from a war of aggression by the coalition of aggression [1], where it deliberately violated the rights of civilians and committed the most heinous crimes against women and children without any consideration for humanitarian and moral values. During which thousands were killed or wounded, and deliberately targeted civilian neighborhoods, schools, hospitals, mosques and vital facilities. Since the beginning of the aggression on March 26, 2015, the aggressive coalition continued committing massacres against civilians of women and children, which is obviously indicated in the crime committed against civilians in Al Hamedan area in Qataber directorate-Saada governorate. The coalition of aggression caused a number of victims were injured, without distinguishing between a clear civilian target and legitimate military objectives. The airstrikes left tragedies that the people of Al Hamedan area, especially the families of the victims, will never forget for years.

Details of the massacre of the Aggression coalition on Al Hamedan area

The coalition of aggression committed a heinous crime against the civilians of women and children on Sunday Dec 6, 2015, 02:00 AM, where the coalition of aggression aircrafts targeted civilian houses with several airstrikes using cluster bombs in Al Hamedan area- Saada governorate. This targeting caused a number of wounded civilians. The airstrike also left behind a massive damage, where 9 homes were completely destroyed, and 32 homes were damage. The residents rushed to rescue and pull the injured from the rubble. There are no armed manifestations, military checkpoints, weapons stores, cantonment or even one of the active battlefronts around the area, which confirms that this is a complete and obvious crime. The innocent civilians who are not related to the war were targeted in this crime. They were also not in a suspicious location, a military gathering near them, or a place to plan and provide any support to the military fronts.

The targeting toll of victims is as follows:

Wounded: 13 civilians including 6 children and 3 women

Domestic condemnation

Civil society organizations, including Entesaf for woman and child rights, condemned the crime committed against civilians in Al Hamedan area in Qataber directorate- Saada. It also denounced the shameful international silence and violation of international and humanitarian laws and charters, the laws of war and other heavenly customs and canons that are being cast aside, which include rules and principles aimed to mainly provide protection to children and women.

The organization also blamed the coalition of aggression for all crimes and violations against innocent civilians, and called on the international community, UN organizations and human rights and humanitarian bodies to assume their legal and humanitarian responsibilities towards the violations and heinous massacres that occur against the safe civilians of the Yemeni people. It also called on all the free and honorable people of the world to take effective and positive actions to stop the aggression and protect civilians of women and children. In addition to, the organization called on the United Nations and the UN Security Council to do their duty and assume their responsibilities regarding these crimes and work to stop them, lift the siege and form an independent international commission to investigate all crimes committed against the Yemeni people and discipline all those who prove their involvement in these crimes.

Witnesses' statements

The testimonies of some of those who were present at the scene of the airstrike were heard, and all of their testimonies held the so-called coalition responsible for this crime and that it was the planes of the aggressive coalition that carried out this crime.

_ A wounded woman stated: "We are in Al Hamedan area. The aircraft struck us with prohibited cluster bombs. May God take revenge on the aggression coalition and grant honor to Yemen and its people."

_A witness said: "The aggression coalition aircrafts bombed this neighborhood, which is filled with women and children. The victims are ordinary people who are struggling financially."

_Another witness commented: "The house that was targeted had three women and three children inside, and all of them were injured."

Description of the violation according to international humanitarian law

The targeting of civilian homes and properties by the coalition of aggression's aircraft represents a definite and complete war crime. Whereas the targeted house is far from military camps, military zones, or battlefronts and located in a civilian area. In addition to, there were women and children lived in. This represents a clear and explicit violation of international humanitarian and war laws, which stipulate that war parties must at all times distinguish between military and civilian targets and refrain from launching attacks that are expected to cause harm to civilians. This crime is considered one of the most heinous crimes against children as many of them were killed because of this attack.

Articles (47, 27) of the Fourth Geneva Convention, Article (46) of the regulation of the fourth Hague Convention and Article (48) of Additional Protocol 1 also affirm that "the parties of the conflict shall endeavor to distinguish between the civilian population and combatants, and between civilian and military objects."
